
Losses are equal-weighted batch means: final batches contain 64/512 train and 160/512 validation samples. No dropout or batch normalization is present.